ABOUT VTEX

VTEX is a global technology company focused on e-commerce products that has a daily impact on the work of thousands of people around the world. Through our products and services, we offer retailers a cohesive platform to run their entire business and provide their customers with the best shopping experience ever.

VTEX was founded in 1999 and we provide e-commerce software in the Software as a Service (SaaS) model and omni-channel solutions. With a leading technological structure, VTEX is recognized by the Gartner and Forrester institutes as one of the global leaders in e-commerce solutions.

More than 2500 renowned companies of varying sizes and segments, with operations in 26 countries and in global expansion, have at VTEX the solution for the online sale of their products, among them Whirlpool, Electrolux, C&A, Cencosud, Boticário, Avon, Disney, Sony, Staples, Nokia, TIM, Havan, Muffato, Telha Norte, Polishop, Fravega, Tutto, Personal and Lego.

OUR CULTURE

At VTEX, an idea with the ability to change the company's trajectory can come from anywhere. We believe in a new organizational structure that eliminates the need of formal hierarchy. Our teams organize themselves into a truly horizontal framework that removes barriers and gives people the freedom to reach their full potential.
