

Segue abaixo a descrição:

Acquisitions, Investments and Financial Advisory (AIFA) is a global department from ENGIE Group. The team is composed of 120 professionals spread over more than 25 countries. AIFA is the financial advisory arm of ENGIE Group specialized in Financial Valuation for Merger & Acquisitions and Financial Structuring (Structured Finance / Project Finance for large infrastructure projects).

The Intern will be included in a team of 10 professionals in Rio de Janeiro. The attributions will be to support the team in:

- The development of financial models to support investment decisions, following the ENGIE group guidelines and maintaining the accuracy of such models.
- Developing and evaluating financial options for business development project or other funding needs.
- Assisting the business development decision process by running financial valuation.
- Preparing the internal approvals process for new projects.
- Structuring, negotiation and execution of financing documents for medium to large size transactions, in accordance with best Project Finance practices of the ENGIE group.
- Preparing internal or external presentations for investors, lenders, or management discussions.
- The daily work of the team in their various activities.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Studying for a degree in Engineering, Economics, Business Administration, Actuarial Sciences, International Relations and Accounting at least in the fifth semester;
- Word / Powerpoint / Excel: advanced (knowing VBA is a plus);
- Languages: Portuguese & English;
- 24 month contract, minimum 18 months;
- 30 hours/week.

Centro - RJ

Send CV to: flavia.miragaya@engie.com